NOTICE TO DEFENDANT

Case Name:

Jacqueline Keating v. United Healthcare Services Inc.

Case Number:

431-2019-SC-00663

You have been sent a Small Claim Complaint which serves as notice that this legal action has been filed against you in the Circuit Court. Review the Small Claim Complaint to see the basis for the plaintiff's claim.

Each Defendant is required to file a Response with the court on or before the Return Date noted on the bottom of the Complaint. You must file your Response electronically. You may register and respond on any private or public computer. For your convenience, there is also a computer available in the courthouse lobby.

If you are working with an attorney, s/he will guide you on the next steps. If you are going to represent yourself in this action, go to the court's website: www.courts.state.nh.us, select the Electronic Services icon and then, under Circuit Court, select the E-File option for self-represented parties.

1. Click E-File Here (File Into Your Case) to enter the e-filing application.

2. If it is your first time filing, click Sign up and follow the prompts. Otherwise, enter your username and password and click Log In.

3. Select "Small Claim", and "File into an Existing Case".

4. Select your Circuit and Court location from the dropdown lists and click next.

5. Enter court case number 431-2019-SC-00663 and click Next.

6. When you find your case, click on the link and follow the instructions on the screens. On the "What Would You Like to File?" screen, select "Response to Small Claim". Follow the instructions to complete your filing. Within your Response, you may request a hearing; agree that you owe the plaintiff; request a jury trial; file a counterclaim; or indicate that you have recently filed bankruptcy.

7. Review your Response before submitting it to the court. Be sure to click Submit.

NOTE: If you request a jury trial, or file a counterclaim the filing fee must be paid by the return date.

IMPORTANT: After receiving your response, the court will send notifications and court orders electronically to the email address you provide. Check your email frequently during your case.

If you wish, you may choose to pay the plaintiff (or plaintiff's attorney, if any) prior to the Return Date. However, you should be aware that the proceedings will continue unless the court receives a notice from the plaintiff that payment has been received.

Failure to register and file a Response on or before the Return Date will result in a Default Judgment being entered against you. The Default Judgment may include attorney's fees and other costs in addition to the original claim amount.

The small claims process is governed by RSA Chapter 503. In addition, a person who is filing or defending against a small claim will want to be familiar with the Rules of the District Division. While there is a section within the District Division Rules that specifically deal with Small Claims, there are others which will be relevant to the small claims process. This information is also available on the court's website: www.courts.state.nh.us

If you have questions regarding this process, please contact the court at 1-855-212-1234.

Once again, United Healthcare has some kind of issue with not paying for the laboratory testing charge that is and always has been part of one's yearly wellness exam. Everything else during my exam was covered but not a lab charge for the testing done on the blood they took from me during that exam?? It makes no sense whatsoever & I can never get a straight answer as to why. It has always been part of a person's yearly exam since the beginning of time and used to be covered by UHC, as it should be. I never will understand why no coverage suddenly but will continue to file small claims on these ridiculous coverage denials as needed.
